Please read and check ALL of the following DanceQuest Recital Policies.

- By participating in the recital I am making the commitment to keep my child in the same class(es) (same day/time/style) from January 8 through June 1, 2024.
- I understand that consistent class attendance is very important.
- I understand that I must discuss planned absences directly with my teacher in advance.
- I understand that recital fees $75 are due by 1/15/24 and are NOT refundable.
- I understand that costume fees are due by 2/1/24 and are NOT refundable. $80 (1) dance, $70/ea. (2) dances, $65/ea. (3) dances or more.
- I understand that the recital will be held on Saturday, June 1, 2024 and my dancer is available on that date.
- I understand that all students are REQUIRED to attend the dress rehearsals on Friday, May 31, 2024.
- I understand that students must arrive for dress rehearsal on time with full hair, makeup, and all costume pieces on.

- I understand that a class cannot/will not wait for pictures or rehearsal if a student is late.
- I understand that students will be escorted backstage by a DanceQuest staff member for both the dress rehearsal and recital, and that parents are not allowed backstage at any time.
- I understand that students are required to remain backstage during the entire recital and will not be released unless otherwise notified by the director.
- I understand that if I have a student participating in the recital, I will be responsible for checking them in/out as per the director's instruction.
- I understand that I will be responsible for caring for the costume once it has been issued and for making sure that it is not damaged, soiled, or missing pieces.
- I understand that dancers are not permitted to wear nail polish or jewelry of any kind (including earrings) during pictures, dress rehearsal and recital.
- I understand that electronic devices and/or valuables should not be brought backstage and that DanceQuest is not responsible for any items lost or stolen.
- I understand that recital tickets, recital t-shirts, professional photos, and professional DVDs are all optional purchases that will be available at an additional cost.

As part of DanceQuest recital participation, performers will be photographed and video recorded. Performers are photographed by class and individually. DanceQuest staff will also photograph performers during the dress rehearsal and the show. A professional videographer will record the recitals and produce DVDs for sale to recital participants. DanceQuest may use any video and photographs for promotional purposes, including print ads, website, etc.

Participants and/or their parents hereby permit the taking of photos, audio, and video while using the facilities or programs at GymQuest of Plainfield, LLC, and DanceQuest for publications and use as GymQuest and DanceQuest see fit.

- I agree

By typing your name below and dating this submission you agree to adhere to all aspects of the DanceQuest Recital Policies and the Photo/Media Release
